

Youth PWR Charity- Safeguarding Policy

Purpose

Our charitable activities include working with vulnerable people. The purpose of this policy is to protect them and provide stakeholders and the public with the overarching principles that guide our approach in doing so.

Applicability

This policy applies to anyone working on our behalf, including our trustees, managers, staff, and volunteers.

Partner organisations will be required to have their own safeguarding procedures that must, as a minimum, meet the standards outlined below, and include any additional legal or regulatory requirements specific to their work. These include, but are not limited to:

- Other UK regulators, if applicable
- Charity Commission guidance, if working overseas.
- The International Child Safeguarding Standards, if applicable.

Safeguarding should be appropriately reflected in other relevant policies and procedures, such as recruitment and whistle blowing.

Principles

We believe that:

- Nobody who is involved in our work should ever experience abuse, harm, neglect or exploitation.
- The Board and staff have a responsibility to promote the welfare of all of our beneficiaries, staff and volunteers, to keep them safe and to work in a way that protects them.
- We all have a collective responsibility for creating a culture in which our people not only feel safe, but also able to speak up, if they have any concerns.

Types of Abuse

Abuse can take many forms, such as physical, psychological or emotional, financial, sexual or institutional abuse, including neglect and exploitation. Signs that may indicate the different types of abuse are at Appendix 1.

Reporting Concerns

If a crime is in progress, or an individual in immediate danger, call 999, as you would in any other circumstances.

If you are a beneficiary, or member of the public, make your concerns known to a member of staff who will alert a senior member of the team.

For staff and volunteers, you should make your concerns known to your line manager, or other supervisor. If you feel unable to do so, speak to a member of the management team.

The trustees are mindful of their reporting obligations to the Charity Commission in respect of Serious Incident Reporting and, if applicable, other regulator. They are aware of the Government guidance on handling safeguarding allegations.

If a child/young person/vulnerable adult says that he or she is being abused or provides information that suggests that they are being abused ('allegation of abuse'), the person receiving that information should:

- remain calm, accessible and receptive
- listen carefully without interrupting or asking leading questions
- communicate with the child/young person/vulnerable adult in a way that is appropriate to their age, understanding and preference
- be aware of the non-verbal messages you are giving
- make it clear that you are taking them seriously
- acknowledge their courage and reassure them that they are right to tell
- reassure them that they should not feel guilty and say that you're sorry that this has happened to them
- let them know that you are going to do everything you can to help them and what may happen as a result
- make a note of what was said and who was present, using the person's actual words wherever possible

You should NEVER:

- investigate or seek to prove or disprove possible abuse
- make promises about confidentiality or keeping 'secrets'
- assume that someone else will take the necessary action
- jump to conclusions, be dismissive or react with shock, anger, horror etc
- speculate or accuse anybody
- investigate, suggest or probe for information
- confront another person (adult or child/young person) allegedly involved
- offer opinions about what is being said or the persons allegedly involved
- forget to record what you have been told
- fail to pass this information on to the correct person
